PKF Lawler Joins Mid-Tier Chartered Accounting Association, Hall Chadwick

Hall Chadwick Association's Chairman, Brent Kijurina today announced the Perth's PKF Lawler will join the Hall Chadwick Association; a move that will significantly bolster Hall Chadwick's presence and extending their range of accounting specialty services in the west.

Mr Kijurina said "the newly combined accounting and advisory service offerings will provide clients with broader access to multi-disciplined expertise across greater range of industries and sectors. In addition to accounting compliance services, the firm will deliver audit & assurance services, an extensive range of corporate tax specialisations, corporate finance and company secretarial services."

Managing Partner Wayne Healy said "This is a very exciting event for both our firms, for our employees and our clients. Both teams have enjoyed significant growth in recent years and have a solid reputation for delivering accounting solutions to clients. We have worked alongside Hall Chadwick in Western Australia for many years and now we will build on our combined expertise and deliver to the growing needs of our clients".

Mr Kijurina added "our leadership teams hold closely the values and service orientation of doing business well, having a personal approach and delivering a quality result to our clients on time. We also share an emphasis on honesty and integrity amongst our staff. Hall Chadwick are in the strongest position to serve our clients nationally."

With the joining of PKF Lawler, Hall Chadwick Association fees are now in excess of $70M, making the Association one of Australia's largest Mid-Tier accounting firms.

Hall Chadwick will now provide two office locations in Western Australia.

The Hall Chadwick Insolvency Office in Perth will operate business as usual at Allendale Square, Level 11/77 St Georges Terrace WA 6000.

PKF Lawler will officially operate as Hall Chadwick WA as of Monday 3 September at 283 Rokeby Rd, Subiaco WA 6008.
