JOVAN SINGH

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

ABOUT JOVAN

A Senior Associate in the Corporate Insolvency division, Jovandeep Singh joined Hall Chadwick in July 2006 and has over 12 years' experience in the field.

An analytical mind and high attention to detail assists Jovandeep with problem solving and developing alternatives for businesses that are currently facing financial difficulty. This also allows him to work with businesses to address their issues with internal processes and business plans.

Jovandeep has worked with a variety of skilled professions and industries including Retail, Transport and Logistics, Construction and Finance with an end goal of assisting businesses through difficult times, to come out the other end and continue on into the future. This has given Jovandeep the opportunity to understand the many different aspects applicable to each different industry and the knowledge of what is required to succeed within them.

During Jovandeep's time at Hall Chadwick, he has been exposed to Voluntary Administrations, Deed of Company Arrangements, Liquidations, Receiverships, Agents for Mortgages and Expert Reports such as Investigating Accountant Reports and Solvency Reports.

Jovandeep believes that the two key qualities essential for success are the "willingness to adapt to changing circumstances and being open to different ideas and people. This allows you to deal with whatever problems you face and to extract the best out of everyone to achieve your end goal."
