

Media Statement

On 7 July 2020

Kathleen Vouris of Hall Chadwick was appointed Liquidator of FOMO Festival Pty Ltd (“the Company”) on 15 May 2020.

BACKGROUND

The Company operated the FOMO music festival nationwide and in New Zealand.

The Liquidator has commenced her investigations into the Company’s affairs, reasons for failure, assets and total quantum of liabilities. The Liquidator is presently preparing her statutory report to creditors which will provide greater details of the Company’s business, affairs, trading history and results of the Liquidator’s investigations; among other details. The Liquidator anticipates that this report will be available to circulate by the end of July 2020.

The intellectual property and trade mark of the Company, formerly trading as FOMO Festival, are being offered for sale. FOMO Festival operated and held sold out musical festivals both nationally and internationally, including mainstream artists such as Nicki Minaj, Kaytranada, Meduza and attracting sponsorships from entities such as Red Bull Australia and JD Sports.

Information regarding the intellectual property, trade mark and business of the Company are included in the Information Memorandum which can be obtained by interested parties completing a Confidentiality Agreement.

Expressions of Interest and indicative offers are required to be received by COB Thursday, 30 July 2020.

Further updates in respect to the liquidation will be provided when further information becomes available. Should you wish to express your interest in the Company’s intellectual property or the Company be indebted to you, please contact Ignatius Campos of Hall Chadwick on icampos@hallchadwick.com.au
